

THEMES for SPPR 2009/10

Creativity, Creative Talents, and Creative Industries

Research projects addressing this theme should gauge and explain the genesis and cultivation of creativity and creative talents in Hong Kong, explore their implications for the development of creative industries and Hong Kong's social and economic development, and propose policies to induce and harness creativity and creative talents, and foster the development of creative industries.

Hong Kong and Pearl River Delta Development

Research projects addressing this theme should study Hong Kong's and Pearl River Delta's development in the light of the upcoming National 12-5 Plan and the recently promulgated Outline of the Plan for the Reform and Development of the Pearl River Delta, identify problems and opportunities, and propose policies and strategies.