

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof David Robert CARLESS

Faculty of Education
The University of Hong Kong

Project Title:

Feedback Literacy for Lifelong Learning: New Pathways for Research and Practice

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof David Robert CARLESS

- ❧ Professor of Faculty of Education at the University of Hong Kong
- ❧ Research focuses on how feedback processes are implemented to promote effective student learning.
- ❧ World-leader in feedback research in higher education and one of the most cited scholars in this sub-field. His work has been cited more than 12,000 times as at September 2021 with an H-index of 46.
- ❧ Contributed more than 70 journal articles and chapters; and published five books, mainly with Routledge the leading educational publisher. He has delivered more than 20 Keynote speeches in the last five years at a variety of international, regional and local events.

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Julien CHAISSE
School of Law
City University of Hong Kong

Project Title:

The Tax Factor Of The Global Trade War: Designing Better Digital Tax Rules

夏竹立教授

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Julien CHAISSE

- ❧ Professor at City University of Hong Kong
- ❧ President and Chair of the Asia Pacific FDI Network (current)
- ❧ Expert in international economic law (trade, investment, and tax), cyberlaw, and international dispute resolution.
- ❧ This research project will carry out an empirical research on the emerging legal issues at the center of digitalization of taxes. Overall, by conducting an impact-based study on digital tax rules at national, regional and global levels, this research will provide an analytical framework for finding last-longing solutions to the impending international trade war which cuts across the fields of tax, foreign investment and trade.
- ❧ Awards and Honours:
 - 🏆 Tenth annual Smit-Lowenfeld Prize (2020), International Arbitration Club of New York
 - 🏆 Vice-Chancellor's Young Researcher Award (2018), Chinese University of Hong Kong (85th Congregation)

HSSPFS Awardee

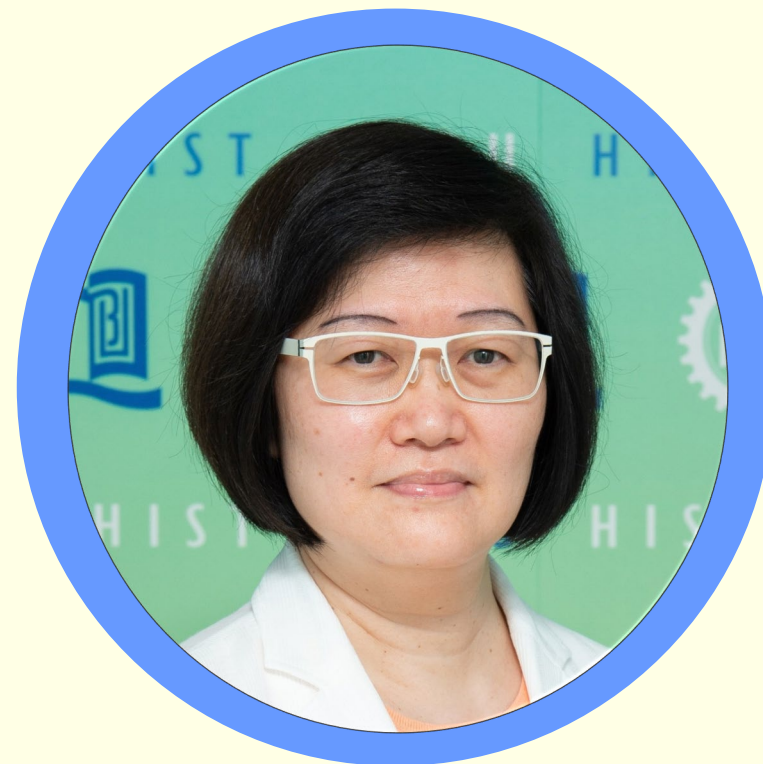

Prof Clara Wing-chung HO

Department of History

Hong Kong Baptist University

Project Title:

*Getting Older, Doing Worse: Aging-provoked Unhappiness
as Seen in Self-narratives of Qing China*

劉詠聰教授

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Clara Wing-chung HO

- ☞ Professor and Head of History at Hong Kong Baptist University
- ☞ Expert in Chinese history with a particular focus on women, gender, childhood, and the elderly.
- ☞ Track record in securing research funding, leading collaborative projects, presenting findings to both scholarly and public audiences, and delivering top-quality publications.
- ☞ She is of the view that restoring women, children, and the elderly to history will lead to a more liberal and inclusive reading of the human past. She has been invited to contribute two autobiographical essays to volumes published in the US and China.

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Julia Christine KUEHN
School of English
The University of Hong Kong

Project Title:

'Geopoetic Enquiries: Travel, Text and the Spaces of Writing'

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Julia Christine KUEHN

- ☞ Research Fellowships at the Universities of Cambridge and Glasgow and will join Oxford University for a Visiting Fellowship in 2022
- ☞ Editorial Board member on journals published with Oxford, Edinburgh and Sydney University Presses
- ☞ Senior Fellow of the Higher Education Authority and elected Fellow of the Hong Kong Academy of the Humanities
- ☞ Awards and Honours:
 - 🏆 Outstanding Young Researcher Award and Outstanding Teaching Award from the University of Hong Kong

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Mark MASON

Department of International Education
The Education University of Hong Kong

Project Title:

Hong Kong Torn Asunder: Values, ethics and education out of the impasse

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Mark MASON

- ❧ Professor and Head of the Department of International Education at the Education University of Hong Kong
- ❧ Expert in comparative and international education and development, from a disciplinary background in philosophy, social theory, complexity theory and education studies.
- ❧ Former Editor of the International Journal of Educational Development (Elsevier), and of the CERC Studies in Comparative Education Series (Springer).
- ❧ Past President of the Comparative Education Society of Hong Kong and a former Director of the Comparative Education Research Centre at the University of Hong Kong. His work has been translated and published in ten languages.

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Eric S NELSON

Division of Humanities

The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology

Project Title:

Nothingness, Suffering, and the Unconscious: Buddhism and Nineteenth-Century German Philosophy

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Eric S NELSON

- ❧ Professor of Philosophy at the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology
- ❧ Published over 80 articles on Chinese, German, and Jewish intercultural philosophy. His authored books include Chinese and Buddhist Philosophy in Early Twentieth-Century German Thought (Bloomsbury, 2017), Levinas, Adorno, and the Ethics of the Material Other (SUNY Press, 2020), and Daoism and Environmental Philosophy: Nourishing Life (Routledge, 2020).
- ❧ Authored three books, edited/co-edited more than six anthologies as well as served as Guest Editor for special journal issues of Frontiers of Philosophy in China and the Journal of Chinese Philosophy.

HSSPFS Awardee

Dr Yunya SONG

Department of Journalism

Hong Kong Baptist University

Project Title:

Networked Framing in the Age of Hybrid Media: Legacy Media Coverage of and Social Media Conversations About Climate Change in the US, UK, and China

宋韵雅博士

HSSPFS Awardee

Dr Yunya SONG

- ☞ Director of the AI and Media Research Lab in the School of Communication and Film at Hong Kong Baptist University
- ☞ Expert in global communication, computational social science, cyber-psychology and behavior.
- ☞ Award Chair of Chinese Communication Association and the Mass Communication and Society Division of AEJMC and editor of Communication & Society and the associate editor of Quality and Quantity, and Journal of Contemporary Eastern Asia
- ☞ Awards and Honours:
 - 🏆 Visiting Fulbright scholar at Cornell University from (2019-2020)
 - 🏆 HKBU President's Award for Outstanding Young Researcher (2017)

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Emilie Yueh-yu YEH
Department of Visual Studies
Lingnan University

Project Title:

Cinema and the Colonial Dispositif: Early Screen Culture in Hong Kong (1897 to 1925)

葉月瑜教授

HSSPFS Awardee

Prof Emilie Yueh-yu YEH

- ☞ Lam Wong Yiu Wah Chair Professor of Visual Studies and Director of Film and Creative Industries at Lingnan University
- ☞ published nine books and over 60 academic articles, some of which have been translated into French, Japanese, Spanish, and Hungarian.
- ☞ This project will complete a monograph on the early film culture of Hong Kong. Tentatively titled “Cinema and the Colonial Dispositif: Early Screen Culture in Hong Kong (1897 to 1925). The project will delineate the symbiosis between early movie shows and established forms of entertainment in Hong Kong; it will also explain the relations between screen culture with colonial governance in that the cinema practice is part of the aggregate of institutional, physical, and administrative mechanisms and knowledge structures that maintain and enhance the exercise of power within society.

HSSPFS Awardee

Dr Olga A ZAYTS
School of English
The University of Hong Kong

Project Title:

'Talking Genetics': Intersections of Language, Culture and Genetic Literacy in Intercultural Genetic Testing and Counselling Contexts

HSSPFS Awardee

Dr Olga A ZAYTS

- ☞ Directs Research and Impact Initiative for Communication in Healthcare at the University of Hong Kong (HKU RIICH)
- ☞ Founding Editor of the book series “Routledge Studies on Language, Health and Culture”.
- ☞ Expertise includes healthcare communication in genetic counselling and genetic contexts.
- ☞ Invited talk at the World Congress on Genetic Counselling at The Wellcome Genome Campus, the University of Cambridge in 2019

