2. Release of Completion Report, Data Archive Possibilities and Public Access of Publications Resulting from Research Funded by the RGC

(a) Is the proposed project likely to generate data set(s) of retention value?

Yes No

If yes, please describe the nature, quantity and potential use of the data set(s) in future.

(b) Are you willing to make the data set(s) available to others for reference twelve months after the publication of research results or upon the completion of this proposed project?

Yes No Not applicable

I understand that the RGC will release the completion report to the public and only considers data archiving requests after the completion of the RGC-funded project. The RGC has full discretion in funding the archiving requests. Data sets archived with RGC funds will require users to acknowledge the originator and the RGC. The originator will also be provided with copies of all publications derived from the use of the data.

I undertake to include in the project completion report the URL links to the supporting university’s repository or the publishers’ websites so that the public could have ready access to the manuscripts or journal articles. I will also consider to include in the research completion report the data repository where research data of the project could be accessed and shared, where appropriate.

I undertake that upon acceptance of a paper for publication,

- (i) I will check whether the publisher already allows (A) full open access to the publisher's version, or (B) my depositing a copy of the paper (either the publisher's version or the final accepted manuscript after peer-review) in the supporting university's repository for open access;
- (ii) if both (i)(A) and (B) above are not allowed, I will request the publisher to allow me to place either version in my supporting university's repository for restricted access immediately upon publication or after an embargo period of up to twelve months if required by the publisher; and
- (iii) subject to the publisher's agreement on (i) or (ii) above, I will deposit a copy of the publication in my supporting university's repository as early as possible but no later than six months after publication or the embargo period, if any.
