

Acknowledgement

I am indebted to members of the Steering Committee for Higher Education Review and of the UGC for their advice, and particularly to certain members who have commented on earlier drafts of the report.

I am pleased to acknowledge the background research work done by PWC Consulting, especially in the preparation of materials for Appendices B and D.

Thanks are also due to Peter Cheung, Secretary-General of the UGC and his staff on the Secretariat for their assistance in coordinating the review and producing this report, especially to Eric Ng for his detailed work on the text.
